

Fisheries Forum 2012

February 29 & March 1

“Our Past, Present and Future”

This Forum is for Fisherpersons, Plant Workers, Business Owners, Community Leaders, Educational Institutions and Government Agencies that have a stake in the future of the fishing industry on the Great Northern Peninsula.

Learn about recent fisheries research, the status of our industry and opportunities for the future fisheries. Plan to attend and bring your thoughts!!

Agenda at a Glance

February 29, 2012: Plum Point Motel, Plum Point, NL

- 10:00 am Welcome
- 10:05 am Future of the Fisheries (Research Findings)
- 11:30 am Breakout/Feedback Session
- 12:30 pm Lunch
- 1:30 pm CURRA Research Initiatives
- 3:30 pm Breakout/Feedback Session
- 4:00 pm Union Presentations (FFAW & UFCW)
- 6:00 pm Dinner
- 8:00 pm CURRA Presentation & Networking Session

March 1, 2012: Plum Point Motel, Plum Point, NL

- 9:00 am Business & Labour Market Challenges
- 10:00 am Breakout/Feedback Session
- 11:00 am Regional Challenges (Industry Safety & Policies/Shrimp Quota Allocations)
- 12:00 pm Breakout/Feedback Session
- 12:30 pm Lunch
- 1:30 pm Moving Forward/Action Items
- 2:30 pm Adjournment

Please register by calling
(709) 243-2829
Space is Limited
RSVP by February 17, 2012

RED Ochre
Regional Board Inc.

Sponsored by:

Integrated Coastal Zone Management Steering Committee
Community University Research Recovery Alliance
Department of Innovation, Business & Rural Development
Rural Secretariat, Newfoundland & Labrador
Town of Anchor Point
RED Ochre Regional Board Inc.
Nordic Economic Development Corporation

Please contact:

Vicki Hynes, Executive Assistant
Phone: (709) 243-2829
Email: info@redochre.org